

TOLPUDDLE MAN by Graham Moore

Verse 1: Farewell to my family, it's now I must leave you,
That far fatal shore in chains we shall see.
Although we are taken, do not be forsaken,
As brothers in Union we shall be free.

Chorus: *They can bring down our wages, starve all our children,
In chains they can bind us, steal all our land;
They can mock our religion, from our families divide us,
But they can't break the oath of a Tolpuddle Man.*

Verse 2: To those who rule us, we are the dissenters.
“Do your duty; be thankful; don't complain”, we are taught.
For God in His wisdom has divided this kingdom,
For few to have much while so many have naught.

Chorus:

Verse 3: As brothers together, with an oath we will bind us,
The labouring men in all England shall rise !
Though Frampton defamed us, they never will tame us.
Arise men of Britain; we will yet win the prize !

Chorus *They can bring down our wages, starve all our children,
In chains they can bind us, steal all our land;
They can mock our religion, from our families divide us,
But they can't break the oath of a Tolpuddle Man,
No they can't break the oath of a Tolpuddle Man!*
