

In My Shoes 1vii

Em G D Em

What would you choose, if you were in my shoes?

5 Am B7 Em Am D Em Em

Con-stant fear of death, or free-dom in a boat a-cross the sea?

11 Em G D Em

What would you choose, if you want-ed to be free?

15 Am B7 Em Am D Em

Bru-tal de-gra-da-tion, or in a far off coun-try, lib-er-ty?

20 Em Am B Em D Am Em

1. With my loved ones to my breast, un-der cov-er of the dark,

25 Em Am B Em Am B Em Em Em

Sil-ent-ly sailed through thenight, with a free-dom in my heart.

30 Em G D Em

What would you choose, if you were in my shoes?

34 Am B7 Em Am D Em

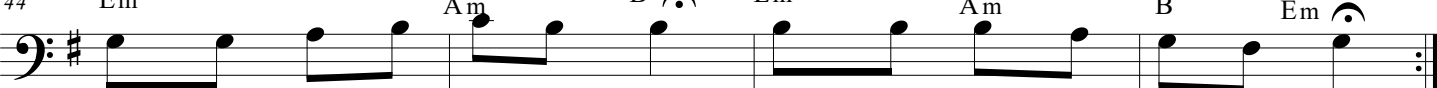

Con-stant fear of death, or free-dom in a boat a-cross the sea?

39 Em Am B Em D Am Em

2. That taste of free-dom com-ing, like the sa - lt in sea air,
 3. That sight of free-dom com-ing, Some-one spot - ted land a - head,
 4. That sound of free-dom com-ing, An - ger and dis - dain writ plain!
 5. That smell of free-dom com-ing? No, the stench of sep - tic tanks!

44 Em Am B Em Am B Em

2. Jour - ney al - most bear - ab - le, Rough seas lit - tle food to share.
 3. Our — joy was oy - er - whelming, Bod - ies souls would soon be fed.
 4. Are we com - mon crim - in - als! Just with - out a ball and chain?
 5. Bore - dom, hope - less - ness, de - pression; Death is bet - ter than this thanks.

48 Em Em Em G D Em

What would you choose, if you were in my shoes?

54 Am B7 Em Am D Em Em

Con - stant fear of death, or free - dom in a boat a - cross the sea?

60 Em G D Em

What would you choose, if you want - ed to be free?

64 Am B7 Em Am D Em

Bru - tal de - gra - da - tion, or in a far off coun - try, lib - er - ty?

69 Em(add11) Am D Em B7 B7

A taste of free - dom com - ing, A sight... — A sound... — A smell of free - dom com - ing!

78 Em G rit. D Em

What would you choose, if you were in my shoes?