

A Lament for Liberal Party Leadership V 1ii

Trad: Lyrics & Arrangement McPherson

Melody

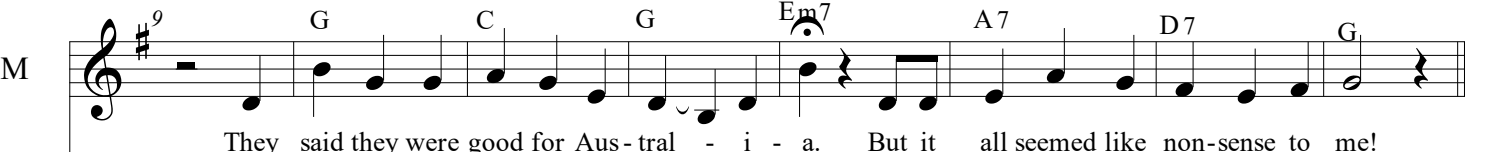

Once we wereruled by a mad Abb-ott. (He's Mad!) Two Bish-ops and a do-dgy pa - rty. (Dodgy)

Tenor

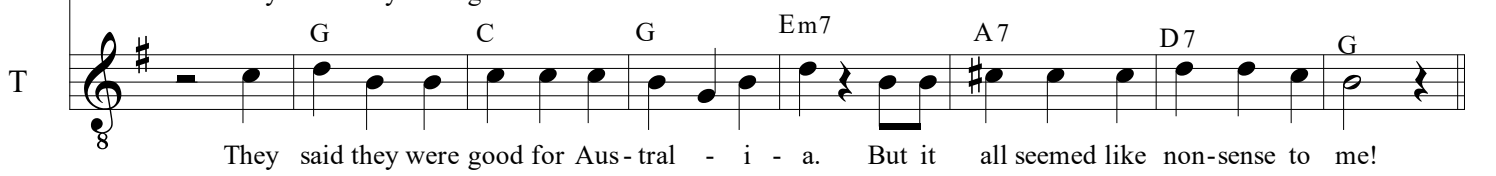

Once we wereruled by a mad Abb-ott. Two Bish-ops and a do-dgy pa - rty.

M

They said they were good for Aus-tral - i - a. But it all seemed like non-sense to me!

T

They said they were good for Aus-tral - i - a. But it all seemed like non-sense to me!

Sop & Alto

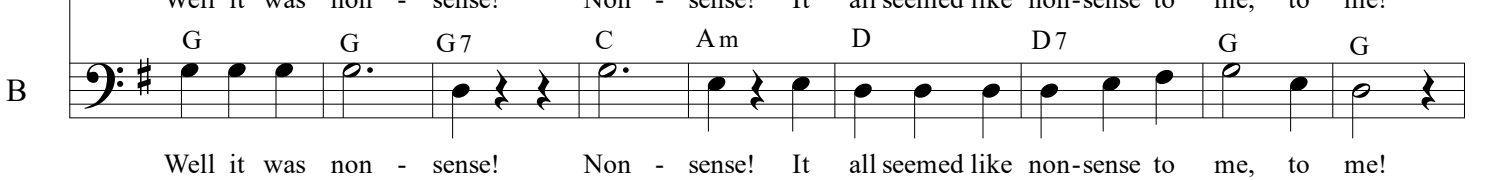

Well it was non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me, to me!

M

Well it was non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me, to me!

T

Well it was non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me, to me!

M

Non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me!

T

Non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me!

B

Non - sense! Non - sense! It all seemed like non-sense to me!

Performance notes:

Verses to be sung by a soloist with one alto or tenor singing harmony. The rest of the choir to sing the words in brackets

Chorus:

Melody -Alto and Soprano

Verses

2. Then we had Mr Harbourside Mansion, (Mal-com!)
 But the policies remained the same, (Just the Same!)
 Government for the rich, by the rich,
 Most of us in the ditch, With money bags Malcolm to blame.

Chorus

*It was still Non-sense! Non-sense! It all seemed like Non-sense to me, to me!
 Non-sense! Non-sense! It all seemed like Non-sense to me!*

3. Now we've got yet another new leader, (A-gain!)
 And Scott says everything's fine, (Just Fine!)
 Sco-mo says he's fair dinkum, but blink and you'll miss him,
 'Coz it's time again comrades it's time,

Chorus

*To end this Non-sense! Non-sense! It all seems like Non-sense to me!
 Let's end this Non-sense! Non-sense! It all seems like Non-sense to me!*

Kazoo Solo, In Harmony, and Repeat Final Chorus!