The image shows a musical score for a song. It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps). The treble staff has a treble clef and the bass staff has a bass clef. The music is written in a simple, folk-like style. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The first line of music is marked with a '11' and a 'D7' chord symbol. The second line of music is marked with 'G', 'C', 'G', 'D7', and 'G' chord symbols. The lyrics are 'Dig it with a hoe: it will make your flow - ers grow.' The music ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

2. For folks who own the industries I'm shedding bitter tears
They haven't made a single dime in over thirty years
In over thirty years, my friend, in over thirty years
Not one thin dime in all that time, in over thirty years. Ohhhh...

3. "The cost of living ain't so high," I told my wife Miranda
"This talk of living being hard is Russian propaganda."
It's Russian propaganda, friends, just Russian propaganda
From Molotov to Simonov, just Russian propaganda. Ohhhh...

4. It's fun to work on holidays, or when the day is done;
Why should they pay us overtime for having so much fun?
For having so much fun my friends, for having so much fun.
Pay overtime would be a crime for having so much fun. Ohhhh...

5. The men who own the industries, they own no bonds and stocks
They own no yachts and limousines, or gems the size of rocks.
They own no big estates with pools, or silken B.V.D.'s,
Because they pay the working man such fancy salaries. Ohhhh....
